San Antonio - Chihuahua - San Antonio
Mule Train Trail

Eduard Froboese Sr.
July 23, 1834 - September 7, 1897

The trail left San Antonio heading West for Fort Clark; from Fort Clark it continued West to the Pecos River; then headed North along the Pecos River to Fort Lancaster; then headed west to Fort Stockton; then headed West to Balmorhea where it turned South to Fort Davis; then continued South to Presidio passing through Customs and across the Rio Grande River into Ojinaga, Mexico; then crossing the Rio Concho continuing South to Chihuahua. The distance of this trip was approximately 800 miles and required 4 to 6 weeks time to complete.